Pastor's Notes

9/11

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On December 7, 1941, the United States was attacked at Pearl Harbor. This attack eventually led to World War II. I have met veterans who had once been young, patriotically idealistic, and had responded to Japanese aggression, altering their whole lives for the good of our country. After what they had been through and what they had lost, including many of their peers, one can understand how they would not want us to forget the pain of their past and the military heroes of World War II.

The American Pearl Harbor tragedy of the new millennium was the events of 9/11/2001. This day does not pass without remembering the 2,977 men, women, and children who lost their lives in New York City, Washington, DC, and Shanksville, PA. I remember images of death and destruction that human eyes were never meant to see and the sad desperation of first responders who longed to help, many of whom became victims themselves.

In the years since, the events of 9/11 come up in conversations. I recall one time when I started to explain my personal experience, I noticed that the person I was speaking with wasn't tracking my words as a fellow witness to the horrible events in 2001. And then I realized that this junior in college experienced this event as a history lesson, not as a personal experience, since he would have been only 2 years old on 9/11/2001. I was happy that he hadn't experienced the sadness and tension of that day. But in another way, I felt like those World War II veterans that I encountered many years ago. I was desperate for the student to understand how radically life changed for the entire nation after 9/11 and how innocence was lost across our country.

Sadly, so many generations have these moments of tragedy. Like the tragic fires in Maui and the residents of Lahaina, or the recent floods of Nepal, many lost so much in just an instant. Sometimes these moments are natural disasters. But most often our communal pain and suffering has been caused by nations and people who perpetrate evil against others for a variety of reasons and motivations. In the end, this common recurring pain should motivate us to promote and pray for peace, justice, and goodwill between nations and peoples.

On this day, I turn to the wisdom of one of our modern saints, Mother Teresa. Having rushed to countless war zones with her sisters to care for the frightened, the orphaned, the hungry, and the injured, she once said that, "If we have no peace, it is because we have forgotten that we belong to each other."

Even within our country, we have forgotten this important lesson. We have work to do on this sober anniversary of September 11th. Too many people seek to define themselves in terms of what divides us instead of what unites us. We are big on labels of condemnation instead of the dignity of every human person. We have forgotten we belong to each other.

Maybe we can challenge ourselves this weekend to do three simple things. 1. Pray for peace. 2. Make a contribution to peace by ending a division (in your family or with a friend) and finally, 3. Do some act of charity to remind yourself and others that there is absolutely a better way that is grounded in human love.

God Bless,

Parish
Registration

Dear Parishioners,

As we reflect on another year of faith, service, and community, we are filled with gratitude for the many blessings God has bestowed upon our parish family. Through His grace and your faithful participation, our parish continues to grow as a vibrant community centered on Christ, dedicated to worship, reverence, discipleship, and serving others. Charity and hospitality are at the center of our parish heart. Our parish mission statement rings true in all we do: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." Matthew 28:19-20

Throughout the year, our parish came together for worship, fellowship, and celebration through many cherished events and traditions. From Harvest Fest, Trunk or Treat, the Chili Cook-Off, Snow Day, and the Angel Tree program to our Ash Wednesday Soup Dinner, Lenten Fish Frys, Stations of the Cross, Parish Picnic, and Sunday Donuts, these gatherings strengthened the bonds of our parish family. Parishioners also deepened their faith through weekly Bible studies, community Rosaries, parish-wide Holy Hours, a two-day Parish Mission with Bishop James Wall, and the continued growth of Daily Mass attendance and fellowship at The Grotto Gift Shop.

Our ministries remain at the heart of our mission to serve Christ by serving others. The Culture of Life Ministry, Pastoral Ministry of Care, Education and Formation Ministries, Knights of Columbus, Society of St. Vincent de Paul, and Sacred Music Ministry enriched parish life through works of charity, prayer, devotion, and reverent worship. New ministries bloomed this year, including Meals for Families in Need, Catholic in Recovery, and our Legion of Mary Presidium. At St. John XXIII Catholic School, students continued to live the Gospel through monthly service projects, outreach to local organizations, Turkey Tuesday, and the eighth-grade Mission Trip and Retreat. Together, these ministries and programs are a testament to the faith, generosity, and dedication of our parish family.

Each June, our parish concludes its fiscal year and prepares this Annual Report for our Finance Council, parishioners, and the Diocese. It offers an opportunity to reflect on God's abundant blessings and the many accomplishments made possible through your faithful stewardship. As we look ahead, we remain committed to fostering a safe, welcoming, and faith-filled community for all, entrusting our future to God's loving providence. We thank you for your continued prayers, generosity, and support, and invite you to review the highlights of the many blessings God has bestowed upon our parish during the past year.

If you have any questions please contact me directly at deaconal@saintbernadette.com.
